Recycle Your Christmas Lights & Extension Cords

Have Broken Christmas Lights or extension cords?

Don't throw them away, they contain valuable metals that can be recycled. Drop them off at the Township Building during normal business hours. The Environmental Sustainability Advisory Council (ESAC) will take them to WC Metal Recycling to keep them out of the landfill.

Drop off your broken Chrstimas Lights & Extension Cords at the East Goshen Township Building now through January 11th.