Chairperson's Report

C. Supple discussed the CADMUS report and that the SAC would be making recommendations to the BOS.

Old Business

a. Cadmus Report Analysis

- a. B. Hutchison led the discussion of the CADMUS Report noting that the SAC would be looking to make 6-7 recommendations total. D. Shuey mentioned that the WC COG was moving forward with the PPA and that was a great place to start. T. Kilburn asked why nuclear wasn't considered in the plan. T. Kilburn also stated his preference if agreeing to the PPA would be to source local Chesco energy. J. Altshul noted if we did is that there would like be no cost savings to the Township. K. Happ will explore this further. The SAC made the following recommendations to the BOS from the CADMUS Report (1,2,3,4,5,7) as presented. This will be presented to the BOS via Memo at a future BOS meeting.

b. Report on Part 1 of first seminar

- a. K. Happ discussed the upcoming Solar ZOOM Expo, there are 25 or so residents signed up and the speakers are ready, to be held June 1, 2020.
- c. Discussion of sequencing for next 3 seminars. Selection of possible dates
  - a. C. Supple asked which topics should come next. K. Happ said that gardening would fit a summer time frame. B. Hutchison said maybe they could do composting. C. Supple asked about adding educational videos to the website. A second solar expo (Part 2) was scheduled for Monday, June 22, 2020.
- d. Discussion of insert ideas for EG Newslette New Business
  - a. M. McCloskey thought we could discuss recycling. C. Supple noted this would be an insert in the digital newsletter.
